Ed. Holland, his father-in-law, in this city, last September, came here last night and surrendered to Sheriff Milstead. He has been at large since the shooting, and has been very wary in eluding the officers, although earnest and continued efforts have been made to secure his arrest. Becoming tired of being a hunted man, he decided to give himself up. He declared that it has been his intention all along to surrender. along to surrender.

Wyatt is very reticent about his recent escape from the Claremont jail, but his evasive statements have strengthened the belief of Sheriff Milstead that he was set

THE SCHOOLS.

The public schools of Newport News opened yesterday with a largely-increased attendance over the first day of last session. The Newport News Fermale Seminary, of which Mrs. M. W. THE SCHOOLS

tary, Institute Passes Away. LEXINGTON, VA., September 17,-(Special.)-News reached town at a late hour last night of the death of Dr. John A. Graham, surgeon to the Virginia Military recovery from a stroke of paralysis which he suffered last May.

Dr. Graham was a son of Dr. Archibald Graham, one of the county's leading men of ante-belium days, and a grandson of Edward Graham, who was a professor and trustee of Washington College, now Washington and Lee University, when it was organized. He graduated from Washington College as early as 1852, and afterwards from the New York University in medicine and surgery. He was very successful, and had a lucrative practice, enjoying the confidence and esteem of all the people.

HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM. He had been surgeon to the Virginia Military Institute for the past seventeen Military Institute for the past seventeen years, and was widely known to the entire country by reason of his connection with all the cadets who have attended that school during his incumbency. He was also widely known to the students of Washington and Lee University, as he was consulted by them and attended them during any illness. During his lifetime Dr. Graham accumulated large property, and at the time of his death was the wealthiest citizen in the community.

HIS WAR RECORD.

He served through the late war, and was at one time surgeon of the Forty-second Virginia Regiment. Afterwards he was with General Pendleton, chief of artillery of the Army of Northern Vir-ginia, with whom he remained until the close of the struggle. close of the struggle.

Dr. Graham received the rank of a colonel. He was twice married. His first wife died some ten years aso. His second wife survives him, also four daughters, all children of his first wife. He was aged 62 years. His remains were brought here at a late hour this evening, and he will be buried from his residence to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M. The corps of cadets will attend the funeral. THE COLONIAL CAPITAL. That Dangerous Bridge-Is Greatly $5.

Lord Fairfax, of Greenway Court, in his 64th year. Deceased came here about his 6ith year. Deceased came here about eight years ago, from Westmoreland. He leaves a sister—Miss Annie Fairfax— in Richmond, and a brother—Dr. Fairfax, a well-known physician of Washington— and was a brother of Mrs. Whittly, of Richmond. The funeral will take place to morrow.

THAT DANGEROUS BRIDGE.

Several prominent officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio road were here yesterday, examining the railroad-bridge on Waller strest. They stated that the bridge ought to be raised at least four feet; that the cost would be about $8,000, and that the company would communicate with our Town Council at an early day in regard to the matter.
